SALES POINTS:

- Never-before-seen collection of stories from Eddie Bunker
- Eddie Bunker still famous for his role as Mr Blue in Reservoir Dogs
- Bunker's reputation still rising since his death in 2005
- Complete backlist has been reissued with new cover treatments

DESCRIPTION:

In L.A. Justice, a black man falls foul of the law after a minor traffic incident and once inside the prison system he finds it a labyrinth impossible to escape... Death Row Breakout details the routine of being on Death Row before exploding into action when the plans for a breakout kick in.

Altogether Death Row Breakout brings together seven previously unseen short stories that draw fully on Edward Bunker's incomparable experience of the U.S. prison system. - as James Ellroy says 'by an ex-criminal, from the unregenerately criminal viewpoint...'

CRITICAL ACCLAIM FOR EDWARD BUNKER:

'At 40 Eddie Bunker was a hardened criminal with a substantial prison record. Twenty-five years later, he is hailed by his peers as America's greatest living crime writer. Those who know and understand these things become hushed at the mere mention of his name. Some call him simply, The Man...' - The Independent

'Integrity, craftsmanship and moral passion...an artist with a unique and compelling voice...' - William Styron

BIOGRAPHY:

Edward Bunker, Mr Blue in Reservoir Dogs, was the author of No Beast So Fierce, Little Boy Blue, Dog Eat Dog, The Animal Factory and his autobiography, Mr Blue, all published by No Exit. He was co-screenwriter of the Oscar nominated movie, The Runaway Train, and appeared in over 30 feature films, including Straight Time with Dustin Hoffman, the film of his book No Beast So Fierce. Edward Bunker died in 2005 and another novel, Stark, was discovered in his papers.
